Five Floor Lamp

Gaspard Graulich

The Five Floor Lamp explores the pure function of a lamp to support illumination, bringing five raw elements together to create a unique industrial piece for the interior environment. By elegantly adjusting the components materials and proportions, Five Floor Lamp demonstrates a raw honesty, combined to produce a graceful sculptural piece.

About the designer Gaspard Graulich

French designer Gaspard Graulich demonstrates an inherent attraction to the pure and primitive through the design of simple objects that challenge conventional function and form. Gaspard shows an obsession to question design, its function, components and interactions, resulting in raw pieces that span the technical and intellectual, philosophical and mechanical.
